

TEMPORARY REGISTRATION PERMIT

REGULATIONS:

(See Section 5.13 Player Movement of the SNS Policies and Procedures for complete details):

1. Temporary registration permits shall apply when a player plays for a higher level club team of a club other than one with which (s)he is registered. NOTE: Player must carry player ID card.
  - * Higher-level teams shall be defined by a team that is:
    - a) Registered in a higher Age group of the same Tier Level;
    - b) Registered in a higher Tier Level AND in an Age Group that is of the same Age Group or higher than the player requesting movement is registered;
    - c) Playing in higher Tier Level
2. Temporary registration permits may also be used for tournament guest players (subject to tournament rules), with a club/team other than the one with which (s)he is registered
3. Each player registered with SNS is entitled to five (5) temporary registration permits per season and obtains it from his/her district. An Outdoor season is a different season than an Indoor season.
4. A temporary registration permit is not valid for cup competitions, league playoffs or provincials. It is not valid for any other player not specifically registered to a team to participate in these competitions.

** With the permission of his/her club, a player may play on a higher-level team within the club, without requirement of a temporary registration permit. Make note on the game sheet that this player is a call up. Permission to call up a player should be granted from the coach of that player's team. **
