Soccer Nova Scotia Announces New League Staff

FOR RELEASE: March 5, 2018

(HALIFAX) - Soccer Nova Scotia will be introducing a new league that will combine the Nova Scotia Soccer League and the Capital Inter-District Soccer league into one league for the outdoor season. This league will also combine the MISL and NSSL into one league for the indoor season.

Welcome to the new League Staff

League Commissioner - George Athanasiou

George has spent 27 years as the former CEO of Soccer Nova Scotia and former commissioner of the NSSL from 1988-1996. He has a wealth of experience and knowledge that will greatly assist Soccer Nova Scotia in forming an exceptional league for our member clubs.

League Scheduler – Kevin Boutilier

Kevin has been working with Soccer Leagues for the past 10 years in a scheduling capacity. Kevin has been a huge asset to many leagues in providing consistent and quality schedules.

Referee Assignor – Michael Spurr

Mike was the Capital Inter-District Soccer League administrator for the past the past 20 years. Mike has been responsible for all aspects of the league operations and will be a valuable asset to our new league. Mike now joins Soccer Nova Scotia as the Referee Assignor.

“We are extremely pleased and fortunate to have three individuals that have the experience, knowledge and passion to make this the flagship league throughout Canada,” says Brad Lawlor, Soccer Nova Scotia Executive Director.
