

BOARD OF DIRECTORS NOMINATION FORM

VISION

A community-driven, nationally recognized leader in the development and growth of soccer.

MISSION

Our mission is to provide leadership to our members by building vibrant communities through a player-centred approach, embracing the values of fair play, respect, and a passion for the game of soccer.

OUR CORE VALUES

Our core values are based on the history of the sport and serve to inform how we interact with each other and the community around us. These values provide clarity and guidance. Vocalizing and knowing our values allows us to make decisions and define what is essential to Soccer Nova Scotia. They are the compass by which we make decisions.

RESPECT We value all members and the volunteer workforce. We welcome and accept all people and encourage a culture of respect in all aspects of the game.

INNOVATION We are constantly looking for new and creative ways to improve the experience of our members.

QUALITY We strive to have the highest quality in all we deliver and prioritize the growth and development of everyone involved with the game.

INTEGRITY We work honestly and openly and have clear transparent communication. We are accountable and open to constructive criticism and feedback.

EQUITY We commit to widening access to under-represented individuals, groups, and communities.

DIVERSITY We recognize that there are visible and invisible differences among individuals and that each member brings unique experiences, perspectives, and characteristics to soccer.

INCLUSION We foster an inclusive community. We thrive on diversity and will ensure that staff, governance, volunteers, players, coaches, and officials will reflect the communities we live in. We recognize visible and invisible differences among individuals and that each member brings unique experiences, perspectives, and characteristics to soccer.
